Equality Analysis Screening

All new Policies, Functions, Strategies, Services, Codes of practice, Guidance or guidelines, Projects, Business plans and Major Trust Events, such as conferences to ensure accessibility and inclusion (should be done at the planning stage) are to be assessed for relevance to the statutory equality duties.

Review

All existing Policies, Functions, Strategies, Services, Codes of practice, Guidance or guidelines must be reviewed every 3 years to ensure that they are still compliant with the Equality Act 2010.

The Equality Act 2010

The Trust is responsible for ensuring that it meets the general and specific public sector duties of the Equality Act 2010. The Equality Act applies to all public sector bodies, the services that they commission and the staff that they employ.

The general equality duty is set out in the Equality Act 2010 (the Act).

In summary, those subject to the equality duty must, in the exercise of their functions, have due regard to the need to:

The General Duties are:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act.
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

Please see Equality Analysis guidance for further information about the public sector specific duties
